

§ 739.62 Duties of licensees.

Each inspector and each weigher, when requested, shall without discrimination, as soon as practicable, and upon reasonable terms, inspect or weigh and certificate the condition, grade, or weight for storage of beans stored or to be stored in a licensed warehouse, if such beans be offered to him under such conditions as permit proper inspection and the determination of the condition, grade, or weight thereof, as the case may be. Each such licensee shall give preference to persons who request his services as such over persons who request his services in any other capacity. No inspection or weight certificate shall be issued under the act for beans not stored or not to be stored in a licensed warehouse.

§ 739.63 Inspection certificate; form.

Each inspection certificate issued under the act by a licensed inspector shall be in a form approved for the purpose by the Service and shall embody within its written or printed terms: (a) The caption "United States Warehouse Act, Bean Inspection Certificate," (b) whether it is an original, a duplicate, or other copy, (c) the name and location of the warehouse in which the beans are or are to be stored, (d) the date of the certificate, (e) the location of the beans at the time of inspection, (f) the identification number or mark of each lot of beans the identity of which is or is to be preserved, given in accordance with § 739.33, (g) the grade, dockage, or pick and condition of the beans for storage at the time of inspection, (h) a statement that the certificate is issued by a licensed inspector, under the United States warehouse act and regulations thereunder, (i) a blank space designated for the purpose in which may be stated any general remarks on the condition of the beans, (j) the signature of such licensed inspector. In addition, the inspection certificate may include any other matter not inconsistent with the act or the regulations in this part, provided the approval of the Service is first secured.

§ 739.64 Weight certificate; form.

Each weight certificate issued under the act by a licensed weigher shall be in a form approved for the purpose by the Administration, and shall embody within its written or printed terms: (a) The caption "United States Warehouse Act, Bean Weight Certificate," (b) whether it is an original, a duplicate, or other copy, (c) the name and location of the warehouse in which the beans are to be stored, (d) the date of the certificate, (e) the location of the beans at the time of weighing, (f) the identification number or mark of each lot of beans, the identity of which is or is to be preserved, given in accordance with § 739.33, (g) the net weight of the beans, (h) a statement that the certificate is issued by a licensed weigher under the United States Warehouse Act and the regulations thereunder, and (i) the signature of such licensed weigher. In addition, the weight certificate may include any other matter not inconsistent with the act or the regulations in this part, provided the approval of the Service is first secured.

§ 739.65 Combined inspection and weight certificate.

The weight, grade, and condition of any beans ascertained by a licensed inspector or a licensed weigher may be stated on a certificate meeting the combined requirements of §§ 739.63 and 739.64, if the form of such certificate shall have been approved for the purpose by the Service.

§ 739.66 Copies of certificates to be kept.

Each licensed inspector and each licensed weigher shall keep for a period of one year in a place accessible to persons financially interested in the beans a copy of each certificate issued by him under the regulations in this part and shall file a copy of each such certificate with the warehouse in which the beans covered by the certificate are stored.

§ 739.67 Licensees to permit and assist in examination.

Each licensed inspector and each licensed weigher shall permit any officer or agent of the Department authorized by the Secretary or his designated representative for the purpose to inspect or examine at any time, his books, papers, records, and accounts relating to the performance of his duties under the
